D. GENERAL DIRECTIONS

1. On receipt of information of any incident of ragging (from the Squad, the National Anti-Ragging Helpline, or any other source), the Principal shall immediately determine whether a case under penal law is made out and, if so, an FIR shall be lodged with the police within twenty-four hours (Regulation 7).
2. The incident shall forthwith be reported to the District Level Anti-Ragging Committee and the Nodal Officer of the affiliating University. The institution shall continue its own enquiry without waiting for police action, and remedial action shall be completed within seven days of the reported incident (Regulation 7).
3. Identity of students reporting incidents, whether as victims or witnesses, shall be protected and no adverse consequence shall follow for having reported (Regulation 6.2(g)).
4. Discreet random surveys of freshers shall be conducted every fortnight during the first three months of the session (Regulation 6.4(l)).

Office of the Principal Date 02/09/26 New Delhi-110036

5. A weekly report during the first three months of the session, and a monthly report thereafter, on the status of compliance shall be submitted to the Vice-Chancellor of the affiliating University (Regulation 6.4(o)).
6. Contact numbers of the National Anti-Ragging Helpline (1800-180-5522; helpline@antiragging.in), the Principal, Nodal Officer, members of the Committee and Squad, Wardens, and district and police authorities shall be displayed on notice boards and on the college website, and printed in the prospectus.
7. The Committee shall meet before the commencement of the session and thereafter as frequently as required. [Principal may specify meeting frequency.]
8. This order is effective from the date of issue for the academic session [2026–2027] and supersedes any earlier order on the subject. Changes in membership, if any, shall be notified by a fresh order.
